

The South African Statistical Association (SASA) is a Section 21 Company (non-profit organisation). The mission of the Association is to facilitate the advancement of statistical knowledge and promote applications of statistical theory in all spheres of life, and hence contribute positively to the development of South Africa.

Herewith are some options for annual sponsorships (the amounts exclude VAT):

Package A – R35 000

- Logo on SASA's main web page and on the conference webpage
- Advertising jobs on SASA's web page: unlimited per year
- Full page colour advert in all 3 issues of the newsletter
- Full page black and white advert in conference programme
- Exhibition stand at conference
- Free conference registration for 1 delegate
- Inserts into conference bags

Package B – R25 000

- Logo on SASA's main web page and on the conference webpage
- Advertising jobs on SASA's web page: 10 per year
- Half page colour advert in all 3 issues of the newsletter
- Half page black and white advert in conference programme
- Exhibition stand at conference
- Free conference registration for 1 delegate
- Inserts into conference bags

Single advert in single issue of newsletter

- Half A4 page Black and White R1000
- Full A4 page Black and White R2000
- Half A4 page Colour R2500
- Full A4 page Colour R5000

Scholarships and bursaries

- There is also the possibility of being a sponsor of one of our student competitions. There are two main competitions:
  - one for students in their 3rd year majoring in Statistics (students apply at the end of their 2nd year)
  - one for students doing Honours in Statistics (students apply at the end of their 3rd year).

- Students compete either for a bursary or a scholarship. The bursary is for a student in need and based on merit, and the scholarship is based on merit. Bursary amounts range from R13 000 to R25 000 and scholarship amounts range from R8 000 to R13 000.
- Logo on SASA's main web page
- Bursary/scholarship will be associated with your company's name.