

ARC – Institute Infruitec / Nietvoorbij - Stellenbosch

Researcher: Biometrician

Requirements: • A PhD/MSc in Biometry/Statistics with focus on agricultural/biological field of research • A sound knowledge of biometry/statistics as applied to agricultural data • Experience in biometric support to agricultural research projects, including design of experiments, statistical data analysis, interpretation and representation of research results • A sound understanding of ARC business strategy • Good communication and interpersonal skills • Ability to work in a multidisciplinary team • Excellent knowledge of MS Office as well as the use of the statistical software such as GENSTAT and/or SAS • Experience in R or XLSTAT will be an advantage • Supervising experience will be an advantage

Key Performance Areas: • Consultation with researchers on various statistical problems • Specialise in biometrical aspects and present at conferences • Design of scientifically viable experiments • Statistical data analysis and interpretation of results • Evaluation of and collaboration in research reports, scientific articles, and theses • Tuition of staff and researchers by presenting courses and workshops • Report writing.

Enquiries: F Calitz, tel. (012) 427-9819 or Marieta van der Rijst, tel. (021) 809-3526

Further information regarding the position is available on the ARC website:
<http://www.arc.agric.za> / www.arc.humanjobs.co.za